

Spread my love

Spread My love and My joy and My message around
There is enough and as you give, you'll receive
Spread My love and My joy and My message around
Give it out abundantly

This is the message for you and for me
Good news of freedom and joy will be proclaimed
Opening prisons and setting men free
God's words are life so call on His name
This is His message for you and for me
The oil of joy for those who have mourned
For those in chains: a day of release
Come to His light you'll be given so much more

God is a Father for you and for me
He gave His Son so that we may have life
His love continues through all eternity
Open your heart and let in the light
God is a Father, He's calling to you
Jesus will show us and teach us His ways
Living for Him and bearing much fruit
Let's come to Him and give Him our praise
