

He Came

A child, born innocently
Our savior eternally
He came to us, seemed fragile and small
But He was the King of Kings
He would give His blood for our sins

The Lord spoke: Maria, child listen to me
Know, you bear a boy
And He will set you free
Did you hear our Lord, do you understand and have you put your life in His hands

Three wise men decided to come from afar
In search of this child
They all followed a star
If you are like them: in search of a light
Then surrender yourself to his might
