

Is there a place for Him

Is there a place for us
To spend the night
And for this Holy Child, who's birth is nigh
Is there a place for us, modest and cheap
We can't go any more, we need to sleep

Is there a place for Him
To spend the night
Our Saviour and our King, who's birth is nigh
Is there a place for Him, where can he go
And who will welcome Him, inside his home

Is there a place for Him
Will you expect
This Kingly visitor, pay your respects
Is there a place for Him, For our Lord God
Will you kneel down and pray, or will you not

Orig. Title: Is er een plaats voor Hem
