

Christ is here

To our darkened world a light has come
To our broken hearts a day of hope has dawned.
The mountains bow and valleys lift their song,
Declaring the arrival of the Holy One.

On the earth His love has shown
We are not alone.

God is with us
He has come to save us
Mercy lights the darkness
Christ is here
God is with us
Healer of the broken
Work of heaven spoken
Christ is here

From His throne above in majesty
From the realm of glory Jesus heard our plea.
Love has come our captive hearts to free.
Life eternal springs from our exalted King.

All rise, all rise, in the presence of the King
In His presence we are free.
All rise, all rise in the presence of the King
In His presence we are free.

Todd Fields, Seth Condrey & Eddie Kirkland
© 2010 North Point Publishing (adm. by Smallstonemediasongs.com)