

Come let us worship.

Come to the place of His manger throne,
follow the light of his star.
Kneeling with others who seek Him alone.
Bring him the gift of your heart.

Come let us worship, worship the king
for Jesus the Savior is born.
All glory and honor, all praises we bring,
the whole earth proclaims, "He is Lord."
He is Lord, come and worship, worship the King!

Wise men adore Him on bended knee, falling before Him in praise.
Humbly proclaiming His majesty, changed when they looked on his face.

Come let us worship, worship the king
for Jesus the Savior is born.
All glory and honor, all praises we bring,
the whole earth proclaims, "He is Lord."
He is Lord, come and worship, worship the King!

He is Lord, He is Lord!
Crown him King! He is Lord!
