

PRAISE TO YOUR NAME

Praise to Your name;
it's higher than the mountains,
it's higher than the highest sky,
and deeper than the sea.
Praise to Your name.
Come and join us in thanksgiving.
For He was and is and is to come,
forever He will be.

Your name is lifted high; all creation sings in one accord.
Ev'ry ruler, ev'ry king knows that no one else but You is Lord!

Praise to Your name;
it's higher than the mountains,
it's higher than the highest sky,
and deeper than the sea.
Praise to Your name.
Come and join us in thanksgiving.
For He was and is and is to come,
forever He will be.

Come in our midst today; in our hearts is love because of You.
Let ev'ry tongue proclaim; You are holy and Your word is true.

Praise to Your name;
it's higher than the mountains,
it's higher than the highest sky,
and deeper than the sea.
Praise to Your name.
Come and join us in thanksgiving.
For He was and is and is to come,
forever He will be.
