

People of God

People of God, come and lift up your voice.
Open your hearts to the Lord, and rejoice.
Place your hope in His promise and trust in His word.
Testify to the ends of the earth:

Hallelujah! Christ is alive,
And He reigns, yes, He reigns forever.
Hallelujah! Christ is alive,
And He reigns, yes, He reigns forever.

When dark shadows surround us and foes test our strength,
We know we're safe in the palm of His hand.
For the love of our God can accomplish all things.
O give praise to the King of all kings.

And when every knee bows, every tongue will confess:
Jesus is Lord, He has overcome death.
So go forth, testify to the Lamb of God, sing
Of our glorious Saviour and King.
