

I Live!

I stand in awe and wonder of all your love and all your strength
That you sacrificed so much for me
That you'd descend from heaven and you would go through such great lengths
That you would give the greatest gift to me: I'm free!

*I live cause God send His only son
He will make our guilt undone, The Holy One
Will wash away our sins
I live cause you made a sacrifice
You offered us new life
We can survive
A brand new day begins.*

I stand in awe and wonder of all your love and all your strength
That you carried all our sins away
And I can hardly grasp that You would give up your precious life
So we could start again and have a brand new day
