

The Lion of Judah

Smitten, afflicted, He bore our pain
Innocent lamb of God, was led to a sinner's grave
Even death, it could not hold, nor keep Him down
Jesus, the Lion of Judah
He's the risen One

Oh death, now your sting is gone
Jesus, the risen One
Jesus, the Lion of Judah
He has beaten death

Yes, I have been afraid to face this foe
And then I realized what happened long ago
Death has no more hold now, it lost the fight
For I desire to walk
With Jesus in the light

Oh death, now your sting is gone
Jesus, the risen One
Jesus, the Lion of Judah
He has beaten death

The resounding trumpets will invite us home
And we'll stand in robes of white before His royal throne
He prepared our place for eternity
Praise to our Father
He brought us home

Oh death, now your sting is gone
Jesus, the risen One
Jesus, the Lion of Judah
He has beaten death
