

I am covered by love and grace – Psalm 57

Hear my prayer oh Lord
Under the shadow of your wings
I take refuge, hear my cry as I call out to You, to God who comes through me
Let destruction pass me by

By enemies waylaid, but You kept them at bay
For I have been protected by your grace

Jesus my saviour, my shelter from storm
You led me safely ashore
I want to praise You, my lord Jesus Christ
You have answered my prayers
I am covered by love and grace

Hear my prayer, oh Lord
Because they dug a pit for me
And they have tried to bring me down
But from the heavens came your orders, and they fled
Your faithfulness reaches the clouds

By enemies waylaid but You kept them at bay
For I have been Protected by your grace

Jesus my saviour, my shelter from storm
You led me safely ashore
I want to praise You, my lord Jesus Christ
You have answered my prayers
I am covered by love and grace
