

May this house be filled

May this house be filled with the incense of true worship
May this house be filled with the Shekinah glory now
May this house be filled with the bread of life eternal
May this house be filled with holiness

Because I long to come inside with my Spirit and my power
To make a dwelling place, a temple for My throne
Open wide the gates of old and let my living water flow
To give you hearts of flesh instead of hearts of stone

May this house be clothed in the fabric of fine linen
May this house be clothed with the righteous acts of faith
May this house be covered with the blood of Your Son, Jesus
May this house be purified and clean

Because You long to come inside with Your Spirit and Your power
To make a dwelling place, a temple for Your throne
Open wide the gates of old and let Your living water flow
Give us hearts of flesh instead of hearts of stone

Lord, we call on Your name: Come with fire again
Lord, we cry out for justice; embed it deep in our hearts

Lord, we welcome You anew with Your Spirit and Your power
To make Your dwelling place, a temple for Your throne
Open wide the gates of old and let Your living water flow
Giving hearts of flesh instead of hearts of stone

English text: Belinda van de Loo

© Unisong Music Publishers t/a Samuel Music, Hilversum, Holland.