

There Is A Green Hill Far Away

Words: C.F. Alexander (1848)

Music: W. Horsley (1844)

Arrangement: Jacob Harrison

Tenor

1. There is a green hill far a - way, with -
 2. We may not know, can - not - tell what -
 3. There was no oth - er good e - nough to
 4. He died that we might be for - giv'n, He
 5. Oh, dear - ly, dear his He - loved and

Bass

T

3
 out a ci - vil war, where the dear Lord was pains He had bear, But we be - lieve it pay the price sin. He on - ly could un - died to make us good. That we may go at we must love too. And trust in His re -

B

T

6
 cru - cified, who died to save us all.
 w - as for us He hung and suf - fered there.
 look the gate of heav'n and let us in.
 This to heav'n, saved by His pre - cious blood.
 sing - ing blood, and try His works to do.

B

MKN 146-01-E

© 2009 Small Stone Media B.V. Holland.

Printed & distributed by GMC Choral Music, Postbus 9185, 3301 AD Dordrecht - www.gmc.nl

Kopiëren van deze bladmuziek is een misdood tegen de Auteurswet en schraaft de belangen van auteurs en rechthebbenden